About the Publishing Scotland Fellowship

We have established a new annual Publishing Fellowship Programme in 2015 to facilitate exchange between international publishers and the publishing sector in Scotland.

Eight international publishers have been invited to Scotland for a week in August to meet Scottish publishers and agents - and to visit the world-class Edinburgh International Book Festival.

The programme takes place from Monday 24 to Saturday 30 August 2015.

The Fellows were chosen by our steering committee based upon their standing in the publishing community and their previous interest and links with the industry here.

The Fellows will visit publishing houses and agents, see market presentations, have matchmaking events and dinners, and many more networking opportunities in Edinburgh, Glasgow and the Highlands over the week. There will be opportunities to see a bit of the country and to spend time at the wonderful Book Festival.

The Fellowship has been made possible by the generous sponsorship of Creative Scotland (the national development agency for the arts, screen and creative industries), Scottish Development International (the international arm of Scotland’s development agencies), Emergents (nurturing creative talent and careers in the Highlands and Islands), and Publishing Scotland (the development body for the book publishing sector).
