

Publishing Scotland

Foillseachadh Alba

Network membership

The aim of the Network membership category is to widen the scope beyond publishing itself and can include non-publishing libraries, museums, galleries, heritage organisations, writers' organisations and other organisations, literary agents, companies and individuals working in the literary and artistic sectors in Scotland.

Benefits include

- A membership rate for all of Publishing Scotland's training courses - currently £100 or more cheaper than the standard rate.
- Invitations to the Publishing Scotland Summer and Christmas receptions, as well as other ad-hoc events - great opportunities to network.
- Opportunities to take part in the Publishing Scotland annual conference as exhibitors, delegates, sponsors.
- A listing and opportunity to showcase your work on our website
- Regular bulletins keeping you up-to-date with events, initiatives, opportunities and news from the Scottish publishing industry.
- Access to members-only information and resources on the Publishing Scotland website.
- Guidance and support from Publishing Scotland
- Being part of the trade body and for publishing in Scotland

Criteria for network membership

Applicants should be based or working in Scotland and have training and expertise if offering services (references will be sought).

Network members may elect two representatives to the Board of Publishing Scotland.

Subscription fees are payable annually and are based on turnover.
